REFLECTION

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 Timothy 1:7

A good steward cannot be a coward. It takes strength, love and self-control to put God first in our lives. St. Paul assures us that we have been given the courage we need to do God's work.

With Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to the family of Bill Welch, (son-in-law of Austin Baxter); Peg Leibold (sister of Geri Klar), and LaVerne Lolwing (grandfather of Chelsey Lolwing) who died last week.

Eternal rest grant on to them Oh Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

OCTOBER-RESPECT LIFE MONTH—The US Conference of Catholic Bishops have designated October as place our focus on a culture of life, following through until natural death. It is imperative that we support positive activities to enhance life, when all around us, there are so many direct attacks on life, including abortion, infanticide, euthanasia and capitol punishment. There is also so much evil on people through wars, terrorism, mass shootings and in defense of religious freedom.

Pope Francis has asked us to "Open Our Hearts to Life". We do it first by prayer, then by starting at home with our own families to accept, affirm, console and love them unconditionally as Christ loved us, extending it to neighbors and everyone we meet. During the month of October, there will be a table at the north entrance with pamphlets on life issues. Please
