One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

The Sweetness of the Gift of Piety

Two weeks ago, Fr. Faustino mentioned one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit that I had not thought much about, or even heard much about: the gift of piety. I thought piety was not so good, kind of like "self-righteousness" or "judgmental." Was I ever wrong about that!

"With it, the Spirit heals our hearts of every form of hardness, and opens them to tenderness towards God and our brothers and sisters.

Tenderness, as a truly filial attitude towards God, is expressed in prayer. The experience of one's own existential poverty, of the void that earthly things leave in the soul, gives rise to the need to have recourse to God in order to obtain grace, help and pardon. The gift of piety directs and nourishes such need, enriching it with sentiments of profound confidence in God; trusted as a good and generous Father. In this sense St Paul wrote: "God sent his Son,... that we might receive adoption. As proof that you are children, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, 'Abba, Father!' So you are no longer a slave but a son,..." (Gal 4: 4-7; cf. Rom 8: 15).

Tenderness, an authentically fraternal openness towards one's neighbor, is manifested in meekness. With the gift of piety, the Spirit infuses into the believer a new capacity for love of the brethren, making his heart participate in some manner in the very meekness of the Heart of Christ. The "pious" Christian always sees others as children of the same Father, called to be part of the family of God which is the Church. He feels urged to treat them with the kindness and friendliness which are proper to a frank and fraternal relationship.

The gift of piety further extinguishes in the heart those fires of tension and division, which are bitterness, anger, and impatience, and nourishes feelings of understanding, tolerance, and pardon. Such a gift is, therefore, at the root of that new human community which is based on the civilization of love" (www.vatican.va).
