REFLECTION

"After the fire, there was a small whispering sound."
1 Kings 19:12

For many of us, our prayers are petitions to God, asking Him for something we want. How many times do we take time, in silence, to ask God what He wants from us? How do we know what God wants us to do unless we listen for Him on a regular basis?

Private Reconciliation—every day, one hour before each Mass & Thursdays after morning Mass until 9:30am.

Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays beginning after 8am Mass and concluding with Rosary and Benediction at 8pm.

To the St. Mary Family

Food For The Poor wishes to thank you for the welcome you extended to Father Nalley on our recent visit to your parish.
On Behalf of our less fortunate brothers and sisters of Latin America and the Caribbean, we thank you for having shared in their lives. They, and you, are blessed by your generosity. In Christ, The Food For The Poor Family

Improvements to outside appearance of school and church

Some work needs to be done on the outside of the school and church. I could use some help with weeding around the parish grounds, painting around the outside of the school and day care playground, washing windows in the school doors etc. This work can be done on your time. If you would be willing to help, please call Jerry at 348-8336.

EVENT IN THE AREA

Sunday, August 17th—St. John Nepomuc Church, Castle Rock Ridge, annual Chicken Noodle Soup and Chicken & Ham Dinner—Serving from 10am—2:30pm.

Religious Education Update

I know the beginning of religious education is a month and a half away but I am looking for a few people to help out in classrooms. We need teacher helpers, co-catechists or aides in 3rd, 4th and 5th grade. I can also use a person to help with safe environment in the first class session from 6 -7 p.m.. The duties of the safe environment person are to collect the attendance sheets from each class room, mark the attendance down on the master sheets, and then call the families that have children that are absent and not excused for the day. After that you can sit at a table in the church hall just incase there is an unruly student, (which so far has never happened) and read, study or whatever you choose to do for the rest of the hour. Please consider helping out if you have children in one of these classes, are a high school senior in need of service hours or just need something to do on Wednesday evenings. Thanks Linda

SAVE THE DATE SEPTEMBER 28 FOR THE PARISH FESTIVAL

It will be similar to last year.
More details to come.

PASTORAL COUNCIL COLUMN

Sinking Fear

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives, in the trials we encounter in trying to do His will? God commands Elijah in today's First Reading to stand on the mountain and await His passing by. And in the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him.

In each case, the Lord makes himself present amid frightening tumult - heavy winds and high waves, fire and earthquakes.

Elijah hides his face. Perhaps he remembers Moses, who met God on the same mountain, also amid fire, thunder, and smoke (see Deuteronomy 4:10-15; Exodus 19:17-19). God told Moses no one could see His face and live, and He sheltered Moses in the hollow of a rock, as He shelters Elijah in a cave (see Exodus 33:18-23).

The disciples, likewise, are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea (see Job 9:8) and rules the raging waters (see Psalm 89:9-10). And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks - "It is I" - are those God used to identify himself to Moses (see Exodus 3:14; Isaiah 43:10).

Even Peter is too overcome by fear to imitate his Lord. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst.

Yet, we should know, as we sing in today's Psalm, that His salvation is near to those who hope in Him. By faith we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children, Israel.

We must trust that He whispers to us in the trials of our lives - that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps, will save us whenever we begin to sink.
