REFLECTION—Dedication of the Lateran Basilica
 “For we are God’s fellow workers...” – 1 Corinthians 3:9
 We are called to help God build His kingdom on earth. We are His eyes, ears, hands and voice on Earth. By giving of our “first fruits” of our time, talent and treasure we help fulfill God’s call. Are you doing all you can to help? Do you spend time in prayer every day? Do you participate in one of the many parish ministries? Do you give generously in the offertory collection each week?

Private Reconciliation—every day, one hour before each Mass & Thursdays after morning Mass until 9:30am.

Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays beginning after 8am Mass and concluding with Rosary and Benediction at 8pm.

It's Coats for Kids Time

There are collection boxes at both entryways of the church for coat donations. Coats should be in good shape. Please no sweat shirts. Winter hats, mittens, gloves and scarves will also be accepted. Please leave your items in the boxes before Nov. 27. Thanks for your donations.

BAPTISM

Congratulations to Ryan and Erin Withrow whose son, Grant Patrick Withrow was baptized last weekend. May he always find joy in being part of God’s family!

SINGERS—Looking for singers to sing in the choir at Christmas Midnight Solemn Latin Mass. Please contact Joe Hood at josephleehood@gmail.com

*Welcome Back
Father Faustino.*

On this Veteran’s Day let us remember our veterans and their families who have sacrificed so much.

Our Parish Book of Names honoring those who have died will be displayed through the month of November. The book is located near the center entrance of church. You are invited to enter the names of your beloved dead that have not been previously entered.

ST. MARY'S ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BAZAAR—SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 2014; 8:00 a.m. — 11:00 a.m.

Your talents are needed in many ways such as crocheting, knitting, stitchery, painting, woodworking; garden produce and canning items. Baked goods are needed; and cookies for the “Cookies by the Pound” booth. Sign up sheets are in the church entrances if you would like to help make the Christmas Sugar Cookies and for donations for ingredients on November 20th. Cash donations to offset expenses are most welcome. This is a great time for students to earn service hours. If you have any new or gently used Christmas décor you would like to donate we have a booth for that also.

Diane Drefcinski with her Mary Kay products and Retha Mulrooney with her wool mittens, candle mats and rugs and other vendors will be there.

Set up will be on Friday, November 21 at 6pm. Please contact Barbara Stevenson at 717-387-1212 or Dee Woolf 348-7403 if you have further questions.

Thanksgiving Basket Time

We will again have around 30 families that are in need of food for this holiday. The recipients of the food baskets are always very appreciative and grateful for the generous donations from the parishioners of St. Mary Parish. By now you should have received your call from Barbara asking for your donation. We called for the turkeys so that we would have the right size and number. Other needed items are stuffing, pumpkin, canned milk, ready made pie shells, margarine/butter, turkey gravy and canned sweet potatoes. Other great items for families would be peanut butter, jelly, boxed meals, canned tuna or any of your family's favorites. Please take items to the church kitchen by Sunday, November 16th.

Christmas baskets, this year we will again give the families on our list a $50 gift certificate instead of a food basket for Christmas. The idea is to ask everyone in the parish to donate something toward these certificates rather than just the 40 or so people on the food basket call list. There are envelopes on the tables in the back of church for your donations or you can put a donation in your own envelope. If you include your name with your donation it will be recorded as a parish donation. But even a donation of 2 or 3 dollars will be helpful. Last year we were going to have a second collection on a Sunday for this project and it was missed, so one generous person provided the money for the certificates. I am hoping to avoid that this year by telling you of the project ahead of time and by thanking you already for your donations for our Christmas certificates. Thanks again for your support and generosity.

PASTORAL COUNCIL COLUMN—Construction Zone

Why commemorate a church dedication that happened in fourth-century Rome? First, because St. John Lateran is no ordinary church—it's the cathedral church of the Pope and still known as “the mother of all the world's churches.”

But more than that, because God has from all time intended the church building to be a symbol of His Church and our bodies. This is what the readings for today's feast invite us to consider. God's prototype for the church is the Jerusalem Temple, described in this week's First Reading and Psalm. It's God's “holy dwelling,” site of His presence in our midst, source of “living waters”—of all life and blessing. But God intended the Temple to give way to the Body of Christ.

That's what our Lord's words and actions in today's Gospel are intended to dramatize. Christ's Body is now the dwelling of God's “glory” among us. It's the new source of living waters, the living bread, the new sanctuary where people will worship in Spirit and truth. By Baptism, we are joined to His Body in the Church.

Today's Epistle says the Spirit of God comes to dwell in us and makes us “God's building...the temple of God.” Jesus drove out the sellers of oxen, sheep and doves, signaling an end to the animal sacrifices that formed the worship of the old Temple. In the spiritual worship of the new Temple, we offer our bodies—our whole beings—as a living sacrifice. Like living stones built on the cornerstone of Christ, together we are called to build up the new Temple of God, the Church.

As the Jerusalem Temple was, so the Church will always be under construction—until at last it is perfected in the new Jerusalem, our mother Church, come down from heaven.
