Celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Our Lord During the Holy Triduum

On Holy Thursday we recall the last Passover celebration with Jesus and his disciples. Jesus washes their feet exemplifying for them his choice to serve others out of love even to death. We leave in silence. We meet again on Good Friday recalling Jesus' suffering and death on the cross; leaving the service again in silence. On Saturday we celebrate Easter Vigil, the first Mass of Easter. The salvation history of our Lord comes alive in the glorious sights, sounds and smells that celebrate the culmination of the Holy Triduum; the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Spend One Hour with the Lord In the Gospel of Mark 14 verses 37 and 38 Jesus says “Simon are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Watch and pray so you may not be tempted. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.” After the 7:00pm Holy Thursday Mass, April 2 there will be the opportunity to spend an hour with the Lord present in the blessed Sacrament from 9:00 to Midnight.

Spend One Hour With the Lord:

9:00-10:00 (last names Q thru Z)

10:00-11:00 (last names A thru H)

11:00-midnight (last names I thru P).

The Good Friday Pontifical Collection

During Lent, Holy Week and Easter, Christians around the world are united in a special way with the Holy Land. Our hearts, minds and prayers are also especially aware of the Holy Land.

Our Parish once a year on Good Friday is called to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the collection for their lives. Franciscans and others in the Holy Land are housing and feeding the poor, providing religious formation and education, maintaining shrines and parishes and conducting pastoral ministry. For more information, visit MyFranciscan.org/good-Friday.

The Good Friday Collection is requested by the Holy Father. Please be as generous as your abundance allows.

Reconciliation: Holy Thursday: 5:30-7pm
After Holy Thursday Mass: 8:00-9:00pm

Pastoral Council Column

Darkness at Noon

Crowned with thorns, our Lord is lifted up on the cross, where He dies as "King of the Jews." Notice how many times He is called "king" in today's Gospel - mostly in scorn and mockery.

As we hear the long accounts of His passion, at every turn we must remind ourselves - He suffered this cruel and unusual violence, for us.

He is the Suffering Servant foretold by Isaiah in today's First Reading. He reenacts the agony described in today's Psalm, and even dies with the first words of that Psalm on His lips (see Psalm 22:1).

Listen carefully for the echoes of this Psalm throughout today's Gospel - as Jesus is beaten, His hands and feet are pierced; as His enemies gamble for His clothes, wagging their heads, mocking His faith in God's love, His faith that God will deliver Him.

Are we that much different from our Lord's tormenters? Often, don't we deny that He is king, refusing to obey His only commands that we love Him and one another? Don't we render Him mock tribute, pay Him lip-service with our half-hearted devotions?

In the dark noon of Calvary, the veil in Jerusalem's temple was torn. It was a sign that by His death Jesus destroyed forever the barrier separating us from the presence of God.

He was God and yet humbled himself to come among us, we're reminded in today's Epistle. And despite our repeated failures, our frailty, Jesus still humbles himself to come to us, offering us His body and blood in the Eucharist.

His enemies never understood: His kingship isn't of this world (see John 18:36). He wants to write His law, His rule of life on our hearts and minds.

As we enter Holy Week, let us once more resolve to give Him dominion in our lives. Let us take up the cross He gives to us - and confess with all our hearts, minds, and strength, that truly this is the Son of God.
